I. HEALTH AND SAFETY

100% SMOKE FREE-ENVIRONMENT

Pursuant to CSC Memorandum Circular No. 17, s. 2009, the Medical Center adopts and implements a 100% smoke-free policy and strictly prohibits smoking in all areas within the Medical Center premises, including buildings, grounds, and government vehicles.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE

In compliance with Republic Act No. 9165 and CSC Memorandum Circular No. 13, s. 2017, newly hired and promoted employees are required to undergo drug testing. The Medical Center may also require all employees, whether permanent or non-permanent, to undergo random drug testing at any time to help reduce workplace risks and promote a safe working environment.

Strict confidentiality shall be observed throughout the screening process and in the handling of test results. The CSMC encourages all employees to maintain a healthy lifestyle both in the workplace and at home.

PROHIBITION ON THE CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AMONG GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT PREMISES (CSC MC NO. 4, S. 2011)

- General Prohibition on Consumption of Liquor. - As a rule, the consumption of alcoholic beverages such as, but not limited to, malt beverages, wine and intoxicating liquor, in the workplace among government officials and employees during office hours is prohibited.
- Distinct Offense from Habitual Drunkenness. - It must be stressed that the mere consumption of alcoholic beverages in the workplace during office hours as well as reporting for work while under the influence of alcohol shall be considered as administrative offenses separate and distinct from the offense of Habitual Drunkenness.
- Exceptions: Consumption of alcoholic beverages may be allowed in the following instances:
    - The consumption of alcoholic beverages may be allowed during programs and rituals such as ceremonial toasts and observance/honoring of local customs and traditions.
    - In such instances, the alcoholic beverages to be used should be limited to malt beverages and wine. The consumption of alcoholic beverages shall not be to such extent that the concerned official or employee will be intoxicated. As defined above, a person is intoxicated when his/her mental faculties are impaired thereby losing control over his behaviour and/or actions.
- Prior Permission from Head of Office. - The consumption of alcoholic beverages under the foregoing exceptions may be done only after prior permission is secured from the head of office. In the event that an untoward incident happens as a result of such consumption, both the head of office and the concerned official or employee may be held liable.

- Penalties. - Officials and employees who consume intoxicating liquor and other alcoholic beverages during office hours outside the afore-mentioned instances where consumption is allowed, as well as those reporting for work while under the influence of alcohol, shall be held liable for Simple Misconduct and shall be imposed the penalties provided under existing rules, as follows:

    - 1st Offense - Suspension 1 month, 1 day to 6 months
    - 2nd Offense – Dismissal

PROHIBITION AGAINST GAMBLING DURING OFFICE HOURS

In line with the Civil Service Commission's continuing efforts to uphold integrity, efficiency, and public trust in the government service, all government officials and employees are hereby reminded that:

> Engaging in any form of gambling, including but not limited to online gambling, mobile gaming with betting elements, and participation in land-based gambling establishments, is strictly prohibited during office hours.

This prohibition applies regardless of whether the gambling activity is conducted within or outside government premises, and whether the platform used is legal or licensed. Engaging in any form of gambling in the workplace, whether physical or virtual, may constitute conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the service, and may be subject to administrative sanctions in accordance with existing civil service rules and regulations.

Government agencies are likewise encouraged to issue internal guidelines and monitoring mechanisms to ensure compliance and to prevent any activity that may erode public trust in the civil service.

The CSC is currently studying further regulatory measures and supports legislative initiatives aimed at establishing a comprehensive ban on gambling activities among government personnel during work hours.

Let us all do our part in promoting ethical conduct and professionalism in public service.

J. SAFETY MEASURES

The Medical Center is committed to providing humane, secure, and safe working conditions for all employees. Access points for employees and visitors shall be monitored and regulated through the use of identification cards.

To support this policy, all employees are required to wear their ARTA identification cards at all times while within the Medical Center premises.

L. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

I. RESIGNATION

Employees who intend to resign shall submit a voluntary written notice addressed to the Medical Center Chief, indicating their intention to relinquish their position and specifying the effectivity date of resignation. The resignation shall be subject to written acceptance by the Medical Center Chief, which shall likewise indicate the effectivity date of the separation from service.

An officer or employee who is under investigation may be allowed to resign pending the resolution of the case, without prejudice to the continuation of the administrative proceedings until its final disposition.

It is further emphasized that all employees must be cleared of all financial, property, and other work-related accountabilities prior to separation from the service.

II. RETIREMENT

Retirement shall be compulsory for an employee upon reaching sixty-five (65) years of age with at least fifteen (15) years of government service, unless otherwise extended by the appointing authority, in accordance with existing civil service rules and regulations. Provided further that employees with less than fifteen (15) years of service may be allowed to continue in the service subject to applicable civil service rules and regulations.

The Government Service Insurance System (GSIS) is mandated to administer retirement and social insurance benefits for government employees. Pursuant to Republic Act No. 8291, GSIS members and their respective agencies are required to remit monthly premium contributions based on the member's compensation.

The GSIS mandate to provide social insurance protection is directly linked to the regular remittance of premium contributions by both members and their agencies. Accordingly, the entitlement of a member to GSIS benefits is contingent upon the payment of the required premiums. Under this premium-based system, only periods of government service with corresponding paid contributions shall be credited in determining retirement eligibility.

A member who retires from the service shall be entitled to retirement benefits, provided that the member:

- Has rendered at least fifteen (15) years of government service;
- Is at least sixty (60) years of age at the time of retirement; and
- Is not receiving a monthly pension benefit due to permanent total disability.
