A. MAGNA CARTA BENEFITS FOR PUBLIC HEALTH WORKERS

Issuances related to Magna Carta Benefits for Public Health Workers:

1. Department of Budget and Management-Department of Health Joint Circular No. 1, s. 2012 dated November 29, 2012 - Rules and Regulations on the Grant of Compensation-Related Magna Carta Benefits to Public Health Workers (PHWs).

2. Department of Budget and Management-Department of Health Joint Circular No. 1, s. 2016 dated July 15, 2016 - Amendment to DBM-DOH Joint Circular No. 1 s. 2012 Regarding the Rules and Regulations on the Grant of Compensation-Related Magna Carta Benefits to Public Health Workers (PHWs).

2.1 Magna Carta Benefits to Public Health Workers (PHWs) – granted to employees pursuant to Department of Budget and Management-Department of Health Joint Circular No. 1, s. 2016:

2.1.1 Hazard Pay – is an additional compensation for performing hazardous duties and for enduring physical hardships in the course of the performance of duties. Officials and employees who are under any, a combination, or all of the following instances for at least eleven (11) working days in a month shall not be entitled to Hazard Pay: a. on vacation or sick leave with or without pay; b. on full time attendance in a training, seminar, scholarship grant, or any other similar activity; c. while availing of other leave privileges such as maternity leave, paternity leave, special leave privilege, parental leave for solo parents, special leave benefits for women, rehabilitation leave, and study leave.

2.1.2 Longevity Pay - a monthly longevity pay equivalent to five percent (5%) of the monthly basic pay shall be paid to a health worker for every five (5) years of continuous, efficient and meritorious services rendered as certified by the chief of the hospital.

2.1.3 Subsistence Allowance - Public health workers who are required to render service within the premises of hospitals, sanitaria, health infirmaries, main health centers, rural health units and barangay health stations, or clinics, and other health-related establishments in order to make their services available at any and all times shall be entitled to full subsistence allowance of three (3) meals which may be computed in accordance with prevailing circumstances as determined by the Secretary of Health.

2.1.4 Laundry Allowance - All public health workers who are required to wear uniforms regularly shall be entitled to laundry allowance equivalent to one hundred fifty pesos (P150.00) per month: Provided, that this rate shall be reviewed periodically and increased accordingly by the Secretary of Health in consultation with the appropriate government agencies concerned taking into account existing laws and prevailing practices.

2.1.5 Medical Examination - Compulsory medical examination shall be provided free of charge to all public health workers before entering the service in the Government or its subdivisions and shall be repeated once a year during the tenure of employment of all public health workers: Provided, that where medical examination shows that medical treatment and/or hospitalization is necessary for those already in government service, the treatment and/or hospitalization including medicines shall be provided free either in a government or a private hospital by the government entity paying the salary of the health worker: Provided, further, that the cost of such medical examination and treatment shall be included as automatic appropriation in said entity's annual budget.

2.1.6 Salary Step-Increment for Completion of a Post-Graduate Degree – Granted to PHW who holds a position in the agency plantilla of regular positions and who completes a master's or doctoral degree related to the performance of the duties and responsibilities of his/her position after at least two (2) years of service as PHW, may be entitled to one (1) step increases to be integrated into the basic salary, in recognition of his/her efforts towards professional advancement. The grant of such one (1) salary step increment shall not be more often than every (2) years. It shall be based on the salary grade allocation of the position in the applicable salary schedule for the NGA, GOCC or LGU concerned. In case the salary of the PHW is already at step 8 or the last step of the salary schedule, the adjustment of one step increment shall apply once the PHW is promoted to a position with higher salary grade, in which case, the salary shall be at step 2 of the corresponding salary grade.
